

English Coloured Papers

Poems by Simon Cutts Papers by Colin Sackett

*out of this duster
all the yellow
has gone
bleached by
the sunlight
on the windowsill*

a swatch: / a sample, especially of fabric / a collection of such samples / [especially in the form of a book] / a patch, an area of a material or surface / a tally or counterfoil / fixed to a piece of cloth before dyeing

"A memory of Mr T. Lawrence ever crotchety, in Bleeding Heart Yard, Hatton Garden, lost amongst the shelves of English Coloured Papers sold by the quire those last days of manufacturing in the print and finishing trades of the area."

28pp, 150 x 105, digital on recycled cartridge, green cloth and paper-covered flush-trimmed boards; 300 copies, Axminster, 2009.