

double-sided

skylark: it is almost possible to believe that the melody from this one species,

actually equals in amount that from
all the other songbirds together.
WH Hudson 'British Birds' 1895

kazoo: 1. record to halfway, 2. play moment,
3. turn over; 6. play moment, 7. record to end.
Colin Sackett 'home taping' Axminster 1996

megaphone: 4. record moment, 5. turn over;

kazoo: 1. record to halfway, 2. play moment,
3. turn over; 6. play moment, 7. record to end.
Colin Sackett 'home taping' Axminster 1996

megaphone: 4. record moment, 5. turn over;

skylark: it is almost possible to believe
that the melody from this one species,

actually equals in amount that from
all the other songbirds together.
WH Hudson 'British Birds' 1895

skylark: it is almost possible to believe that the melody from this one species, / actually equals in amount that from all the other songbirds together. WH Hudson 'British Birds' 1895 kazoo: 1. record to halfway, 2. play moment, 3. turn over; 6. play moment, 7. record to end. Colin Sackett 'home taping' Axminster 1996 / megaphone: 4. record moment, 5. turn over; Postcard, 148 x 105, letterpress; Axminster, 1996.